

18th XBRL Europe Day

February 16th, 2017

Amsterdam, The Netherlands

XBRL | EUROPE

XBRL | NL

Standard Business Reporting

The Dutch Approach

-
- Tim Willemsen, Coordinator Governance
 - Logius (eGovernment agency)
 - SBR

Why is SBR important?

The Why behind Standard Business Reporting

- Lower administrative burden
- Increase transparency
- Smarter reporting & steering
- Digitalise reporting chains

Facts & figures SBR

2016

SBR government parties

Tax administration

Chamber of Commerce

Statistics Netherlands

Education

Housing corporations

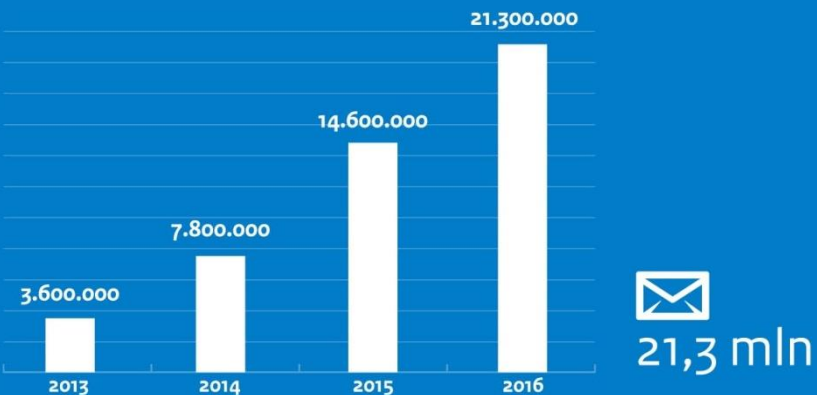

Health

Central government

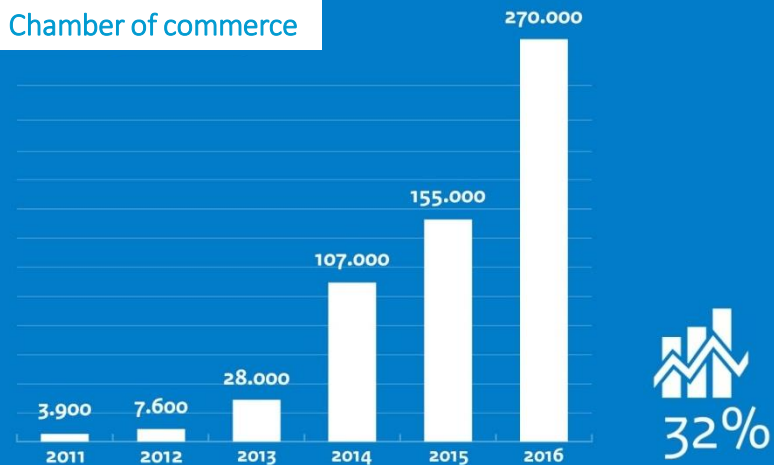

→ 41
← 6

✉ 29,8 mln

Tax administration

Chamber of commerce

It's a joint effort

- Public/Private governance

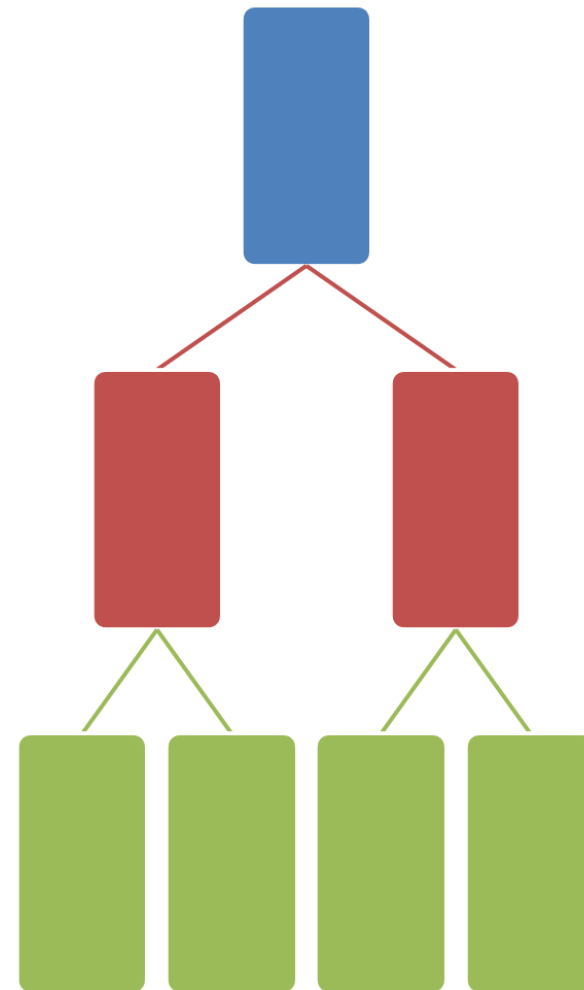

Governments

Banks

Software vendors

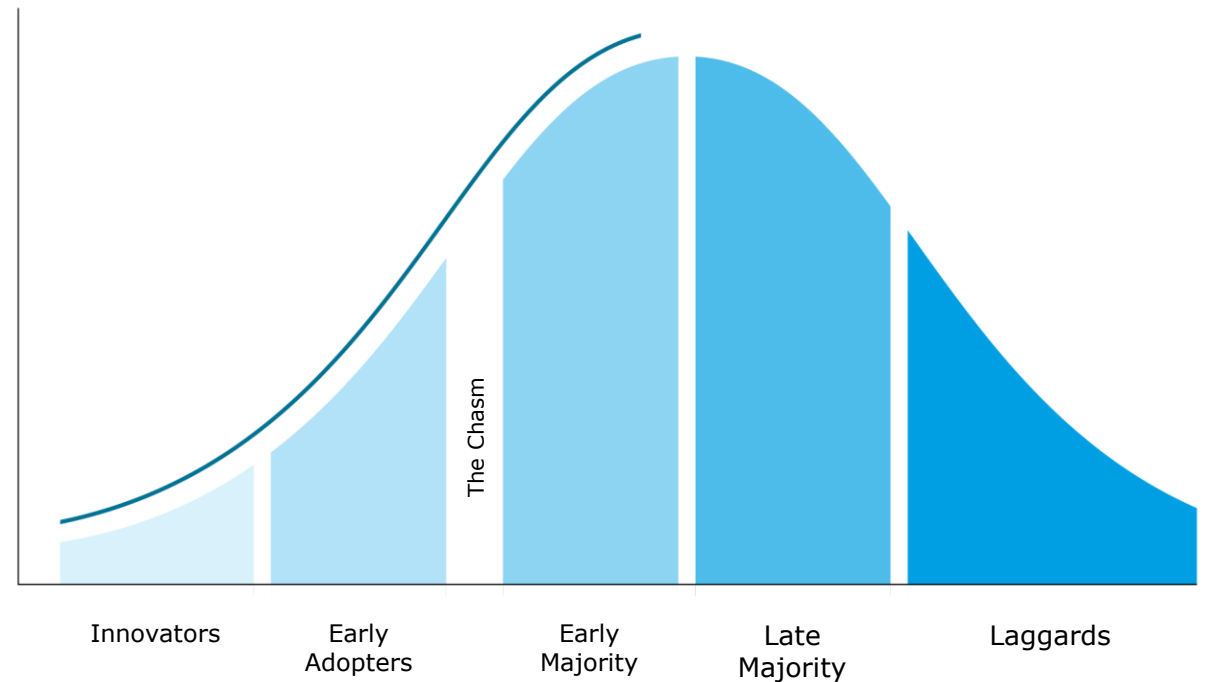

Accountants

...

Our ambition is taking shape

- Networking effect important
- Analyses → 1500 chains
- A tour along departments

XBRL, SBR & The Chamber of Commerce

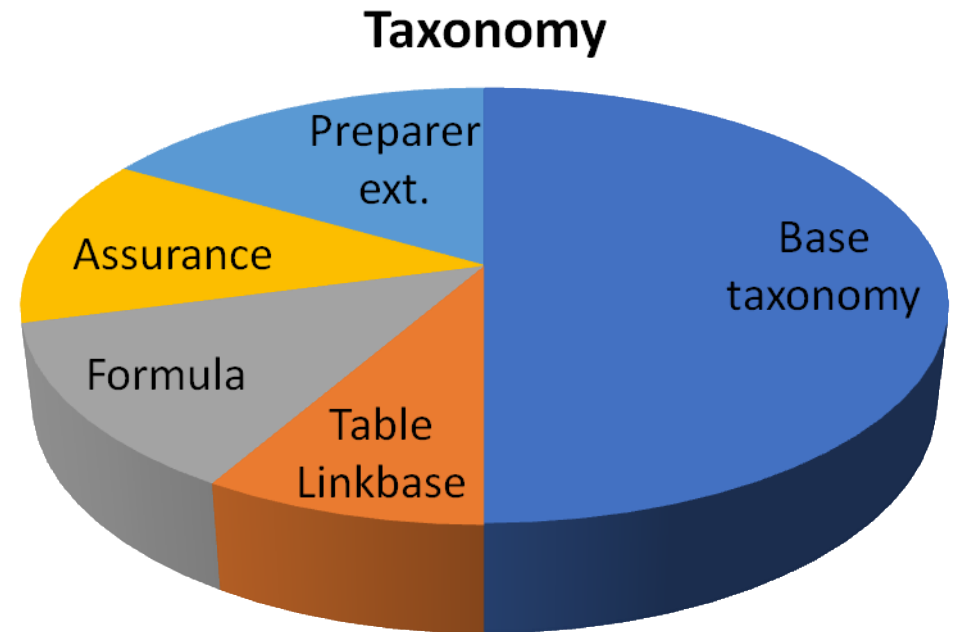

- Filing of annual reports, transition from paper to digital process
- Legislation for mandatory use of SBR for micro and small businesses
- Complex taxonomy to facilitate demands of presentation
- It's a joint effort

Next steps?

XBRL, SBR & The Chamber of Commerce

- Filing of annual reports, transition from paper to digital process
- Legislation for mandatory use of SBR for micro and small businesses
- Complex taxonomy to facilitate demands of presentation
- It's a joint effort

Next steps?

Wrap up

- Yes, we will reach our Why
- It takes years and that's okay
- Good governance is crucial
- Growth strategy ensures long term success